01 animal

Bringing together the instinctive power of nature with the elegance of the modern woman, this collection adds an emotional layer to animal prints beyond the visual. Classic animal patterns are reinterpreted through linear rhythms, organic blotches, and scaly surface textures transforming the language of print into an instinctive aesthetic.

Strong natural tones like black, white, olive green, and brown meet heavy wool fabrics and velvety surfaces to create a wild yet refined sophistication. Blended with the season's warm and mysterious palette, these prints offer a visually rich and emotionally resonant appearance.

02 floral

Blending realistic floral forms with abstract textural stains, this collection blurs the lines between nature and imagination. Dissolved contours, fluid transitions, and layered blotches transform familiar floral motifs into a new visual narrative.

Warm tones of brown, purple, pink, blue, and yellow create a deep and evocative presence on winter fabrics never pale, but rich in expression. The patterns reflect the simplicity and elegance of nature while evoking a dreamlike atmosphere.

03 check

This season, plaid is redefined through a minimalist lens, balancing tradition with modern clarity. Geometric repetitions evoke a familiar order while embracing a cleaner, more restrained expression. Neutral tones such as grey, charcoal, deep brown, and timeless navy are paired with tweed and wool fabrics, giving the patterns a soft yet graphic presence. Plaid becomes one of the most refined narrative tools of the season.

04 paisley

This collection reimagines oriental forms with modern touches, transforming the paisley pattern from its classic status into a romantic visual language.

Spiral structures, fluid curves, and soft contrasts seem to dance across the surface.

Sophisticated colors like purple, deep brown, coconut milk tones, and olive drab create an elegant rhythm on fine wools and draped fabrics.

This season, paisley carries traces of the past while expressing the spirit of the new.

05 tie dye & ethnic

This collection offers a pattern narrative built on boundlessness and intuition.
Tie-dye reflects an inner motion through the intentional dispersion of color, creating a surface language where boundaries dissolve and transitions flow freely.

Shades like purple, burgundy, and milky white come together with cotton, wool, and lightweight textures to create a visual fluidity.
The patterns bring an emotional blur and poetic depth to the surface.

06 geometric

Clear forms, repetitive structures, and graphic simplicity...

This collection brings the structural power of geometric patterns into the season. Intersecting lines, block tones, and minimal contrasts build an orderly yet dynamic aesthetic.

Light beige, black, reflective blue, and olive tones provide a versatile base for both monochrome and multi-color combinations.

With its balanced rhythm, geometric design brings a sense of stability and modernity to the collection this season.

07 patchwork

This collection, formed through the layered combination of different patterns, textures, and fabrics, blends nostalgia and craftsmanship with a contemporary language.

Each piece carries a story from the past, reinterpreted on the surface through the lens of today. The colour palette ranges from pale beiges to warm oranges, deep purples to vibrant reds, and is combined with textures such as wool and velvet to create a rich surface story.

This season, patchwork emerges not just as a technique, but as an emotional construct.
